Staff News

Congratulations to Clayton Frank who has been offered a full time position in the Produce Department upon his completion of Year 10. Clayton has been working at the Co-op for just over 12 months, spending time in the Supermarket and Hardware as well as beginning a school based traineeship in the Produce. We wish Clayton all the best for his time with us. We farewell Chelsea Greenslade who has been working after school and Saturdays in the Supermarket for almost 4 years. Good Luck Chelsea.

Winners

Congratulations to the following lucky customers who won $50 vouchers in our weekly draws during October: M. Farmer, E. Gordon, V. Lamb & T. Bartz. Rosemary Peterson was the lucky winner in our "win back your Market Day groceries" promotion. Don't forget Market Day is on the 2nd Friday of each month.

Shareholders

Thank you to those shareholders who came along to the Annual General Meeting last month. At the meeting it was decided that a fully franked 8% dividend would be paid on shares held as at 30.06.2013. This dividend will be distributed during December. If any of your contact details have changed please advise our office.

Come in and see Alyx and Vanessa for more details.

Service Station

New to the Service Station is a range of fishing gear suited to our local fresh water fishing. We have a good range of lures, with prices starting from only $4.95 each. Opera House nets are currently on special for $6.99. Come on in, check out the range and stock up for the Summer Season. We are looking for photos of local fish catches to go on our brag board—if you have one to share please drop it in. Our range of garden products has also been extended, with new McCulloch blowers, hedge trimmers and brush cutters. We look forward to our Grand Opening once we are fully operational. Thanks again to our loyal customers for their patience during our upgrade.

FoodWorks Awards

Congratulations to the staff in our Supermarket for taking out the title of "FoodWorks Country Town Retailer of the Year" for the third consecutive year. Well done staff!

KILLARNEY CO-OP HOME TIMBER & HARDWARE

GRAND OPENING!
13-16 NOV 2013

The Grand Opening of our new Home Timber and Hardware will run from Wednesday 13th to Saturday 16th of November. Come in and check out the great specials we will have on offer for the 4 days. A flyer will be in your mailbox shortly. During the sale every customer who spends $20 or more in the Hardware will go in to the draw to win a Seaview Max 4 burner BBQ. The winner will be drawn at 1pm Saturday. We currently have a colouring competition running for the children. Pick up your entry form now from the counter. Saturday is the main celebration, with Rusty and Sandy (the Home mascots) making an appearance, along with special guest Wayne Bennett. We will be having a sausage sizzle from 11am–1pm, your gold coin donation will support a local charity which we will draw out of the hat on the day. There will be free face-painting for the kids, specials and giveaways. We look forward to seeing you during the celebration.

Community Support

$25 vouchers were issued to Killarney Memorial Aged Care (x3), Killarney State School (x2), Killarney St Vincent de Paul, Killarney Historical Society, Killarney Girls Brigade, Killarney Pink Ribbon and Killarney First Responders during the month through our Community Support Programme.

Produce

Well we have finally had a little bit of rain. Even though it was patchy it is a start.

We have good stocks of all Sorghum, Maize and Forage Sorghum, Milletts and Lab Lab. If you have any queries on varieties or planting rates or would like to discuss what will best suit your needs please give us a call.

Chemical stocks are currently very good, we have both pre-plant and post emerge products on hand.

Fertilizer stocks are good and we will mix to your needs and amounts. Winter Crop harvest is now in full swing and the samples are excellent for both wheat and barley.

Any clients looking for quality Barley Straw please give us a call for smalls, rounds and large squares. Let's hope for a good start this summer for both cattle and cropping, we all just need more rain!

We now have a new Rural Merchandise after hours number, so if you need us over the weekend or after close of business you can now call 0447 111 124.

Account Queries

If you have any account queries, please direct them to Vanessa or Alyx in our accounts section. Phone 0746641188 or email vanessa@killarneycoop.com.

Christmas Orders

With only six weeks to Christmas it is time to start thinking about placing your orders for Christmas day—Hams, Chickens, Salads, Fruit trays—we can look after all of your catering needs.

Has Christmas snuck up on you again? Next year why not think about purchasing a Christmas Hamper from us and take the stress out of Christmas? We will beat any quoted price from a major hamper company—don't pay too much, shop locally and save! If you prefer to have vouchers to spend at Christmas we offer a Christmas Savings Club, where you can deposit any amount and have the vouchers issued before Christmas. You may spend these vouchers in any department. Please see the bank or office for more details on hampers and Christmas club accounts.
